"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." Wendell Phillips

Choosing Federalism, Choosing Freedom By Tim Baldwin

After the release of my last column "Freedom's Destruction by Constitutional De-Construction," I received so many responses to my statement, "The people of the states [must] once again reject this national form of government and assert and defend the principles of federalism," that I felt the need to develop this subject more thoroughly. The question I received was: "How can I choose federalism once again?" Indeed, answering this question is crucial to injecting a cure for the sickness and illness of tyrannical, national control over the people of the states. Undoubtedly, we are going to need an acute dosage to even begin ridding ourselves of the disease destroying the body of our once-great federation.

(See Tim's column at http://www.chuckbaldwinlive.com/c2009/cbarchive\_20091016.html)

The reality is, the answer is not complicated. The more relevant question will likely be, what portion of the cure(s) must we implement. This will require a diagnosis of the degree and seriousness of the disease's attack on our Confederate Republic. Let us analyze briefly the seriousness of the attack so that we may proportionally and accordingly respond and defend against the encroachments on our constitutional freedoms, guarantees and powers.

Keeping in line with my last article and the position that the national system of government (under which the United States currently operates) is completely contrary to the federal system that our founders and Constitution's ratifiers bequeathed to us, a fact is established: We the People of the United States of America have been denied our natural and compactual rights under God and the Constitution. Again, how can it be argued that it is now legally and morally right and proper to do what our Constitution did not create or authorize? How can freedom exist in a country where we supposedly believe in the "consent of the governed" when that consent has been usurped by force? Consequently, our right of defense is activated.

Make no mistake about this: the US Constitution did NOT create a national government, but rather created a federal government whereby the states were coequal with the federal government in the exercise and defense of the powers granted to them by the people of each State. The founders and ratifiers of the Constitution expressly rejected the notion that the federal government has supreme sovereignty. The issue here is not whether there are "national components" of the procedures in the system, such as voting for the House of Representatives by the people. We know that the founders implemented a few elements of national-type procedure in the US Constitution, just as they did even in the Articles of Confederation.

Rather, the bottom-line issue is, whether the states have coequal power to exercise and defend their powers--and their citizens--and whether the Federal government has the power to force the states to accept its own interpretation and (de)construction of the Constitution. If the union of the United States was formed by the people of the states in their capacities as the sovereign of each State, creating a FEDERAL government, then the states are coequal in power and do have the right to exercise and defend their powers. If the union of the United States was formed by the whole of the people as a mass body politic, without regard to the sovereign states, creating a NATIONAL government, then the states are mere corporations of the parent company, called the Federal government.

I need not expound the answer to this question here, because I have done so in numerous other articles before, proving that the union was formed by the states as states, and not by the people as one nation. The conclusion is more than provable that the founders and ratifiers of the Constitution did not create a nation, but created a federation, and actually expected the states to be the active guardians of freedom for their own people. Thus, what methods can we use today to once again choose federalism over nationalism?

There are five basic methods by which the people of the states can counter the attacks of the federal government's prolonged tyrannical usurpations of power. They are: (1) Change of Politicians; (2) Checks and Balances; (3) Constitutional Amendment; (4) Constitutional Convention; and (5) Revolution.

1. Change of Politicians. Alexander Hamilton notes in Federalist Paper 21, "The natural cure for an ill-administration, in a popular or representative constitution, is a change of men." This method of cure is no mystery, and has been the mode of "change" in the US for the past 50 years. Dare I say, this method has proven to be anything but effectual? Please show me how changing the Federal government from Republican to Democrat and vice versa has done ANYTHING to reinstitute our federal form of government, provided by the Constitution. Both parties in the federal government do absolutely nothing to revert rightful power to the people of the states. I shall not waste any more valuable time or words on this ineffectual method. (Then again, if we had a majority of congressmen such as Ron Paul in Washington, D.C., we wouldn't be having this discussion to begin with.)

2. Checks and Balances. There are two types of checks and balances: (a) federal against federal, and (b) State against federal. Since the early 1900s, the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the federal government

Have you ever asked yourself: "Why should Americans pay usury interest on the issuance of their own money?" Did you know that the bankers' usury interest is now 1/3 of the national debt? And what did these private bankers loan us? Paper printed out of thin air!!! Do you believe it is a fair exchange for the real substance of our time, labor, goods and services? What happened to our national gold and other precious metals? Are the bankers using them to enrich themselves? Why are the bankers not paying we the people for the use of our precious metals, time, labor, goods and services? Therefore, we the people claim our natural rights secured by the Declaration of Independence to create and restore our own method of exchange based upon precious metals and just weights and measures in accordance with the 1792 Coinage Act.

What Is The Threshold For Revolution? Ron Ewart - canadafreepress.com

Several years ago we witnessed a strange and unexpected event between a dog and a cat. A fairly good sized German Shepherd spotted a much smaller, black house cat and broke into a dead run after the cat. The cat, startled by the dog and now instantly charged with adrenalin, struck off down the street as fast as he could go, in a black blur.

Now a dog chasing a cat is hardly news, but it was what the cat did that drastically altered the outcome of the chase. About a few seconds into the chase, the cat, without regard to the consequences, suddenly turned 180 degrees and planted five sharp claws on the dog's nose as the dog, trying to stop, ran into the cat. The dog turned tail and bolted up the street, yelping in pain, as he fled into the distance. The cat simply decided it had had enough and "explained" it

Well, it has taken me almost 10 months to at least get some kind of response from someone with a different opinion than writers in the Southwest Free Press and supporters, and I commend this guy for at least having the guts to say something, even though it didn't help his cause a bit...

Here's his response, apparently to my last editorial... edited a bit for obvious reasons...

"F--k you! Armed, liberal, and entirely willing.....one unAmerican neo-fascist rightwing rat at a time! Drawn the line..... R.. W....., Durango, Colorado, adds email..., adds phone..." End. (Email and phone available for anyone who calls or writes... to protect him from his idiocy).

Well, since I can't let a good discussion go to waste, especially from someone who is the antithesis of freedom, I responded...

"Excuse me? "R", I think you are confused... and of course, use typical liberal communication of name calling, and NO evidence whatsoever. How about some dialog on yourself descriptions? "Un-American? What is un-American about the Constitution, rule of law, rights, truth, fighting corruption, stopping out of control government and those that would control the world? Fascism? You mean Obamaism, handouts, something for nothing, destruction of our country and freedoms, violating oaths of office and the Constitution?"

Can you speak without cursing? Can you discuss facts? Do you have proof? And, tell me about "stupid," won't you please?

I don't see liberals providing any articles countering what is written... you know... some truth and facts instead of emotions and blind beliefs in something they can't even discuss intelligently, or even understand. Anyone who counters the Constitution and Rule of Law... anyone who supports criminal activities... anyone who fights to destroy freedoms... is a domestic terrorist and is marking themselves as the enemy for all to see.

I think you don't realize the seriousness of the position you and other liberals who think like you do are putting yourselves in. Taking up arms against the Constitution and those defending it makes you a traitor... makes YOU un-American, makes YOU the new fascist... and a small minority. Defend your beliefs and position with the Constitution, the Law, the Facts... and we'll listen." (End of my response).

So, where do we go from here? Since this is apparently an obvious threat, even to committing murder, am I to presume that this is a last resort liberals have to try to force their agenda across America... shooting those who they can't refute or even discuss facts with? If this is any indication of how other liberals... those who care nothing for the Constitution or laws of the land... then we have not only a war brewing against an out-of-control government, but with an enemy within our midst. Do all liberals feel this way? Do you believe in killing to make your point rather than have real dialog with facts? Are you willing to defend a pack of lies sold to us under the color of "change" by shooting those who were right and told you the truth but you didn't listen?

Perhaps it will be the liberals who will take down this nation in blind support of an agenda obvious to any thinking American: Destruction of our way of life, period. What made you turn? What influenced your thinking? Is it, as Daniel Lyon states it, (P. 14) an outside force deceiving you or simply leading you where you want to go?

How can we expect to understand your position if you don't communicate using facts and truth? What do you expect from others when your practices and beliefs counter the very laws of the land, and often life and nature itself? What do you expect from those who are willing to fight and die to protect our and our family's futures and lives? Do you expect us to simply ignore common sense, ignore laws, ignore history, ignore facts, ignore evidence and ongoing corruption revealed across the country? Do we look the other way, so we can't see the corruption?

Should we bury our minds in mindless TV, or daily sports events and other distractions created to keep us ignorant of the agenda? How about lots of drugs and alcohol? Those help to keep us passive and ignorant. It defies understanding. For those who love freedoms and the Constitution, and our way of life, we simply cannot fathom your thinking or your reasoning. It makes absolutely NO sense to even nature itself. Are you actually human, or are we being invaded by space aliens, or something else? (Daniel Lyon's (P. 15) next article touches on this "other" possible invasion).

We truly want to be at peace with our fellow Americans, but it has to be a peace based on truth and law, not whim, fancy, or blind allegiance to an agenda that history has proven, over and over again, to fail miserably. We can't sit back and allow this to happen. It threatens our lives, our childrens lives, and the very world order itself. Can't you see that?

The solution is incredibly simple, for us all... we simply stand up and say, we will defend the laws of the land, and our Constitution, and allow free markets and commerce to dictate our economy. We defend the Constitution from lawless "leaders." We agree to be a moral, ethical, lawful people, and subject ourselves to these character traits.

By doing this, we would transform this nation, and have a profound impact on global communities. If we continue to deteriorate as a nation, as a people, as an example of what is possible... then I fear we WILL see the end of this Republic, and we will collectively be the direct cause of ushering in the new world order so many across this planet are fighting.

So, if any liberals can provide us an answer to all the evidence available that suggests a national insanity is progressively spreading, we want to hear it. We are all one People, united, or we will all fall, divided! Watch "Fall of the Republic" at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VebOTc-7shU>.

Liberals? Challenge! Watch the above video... FREE... and provide real proof against all that is stated, or join our fight to save... YOU!!!!

State preps to relocate quarantined H1N1 victims - 'Your home and other less restrictive alternatives are not acceptable'

By Drew Zahn wnd.com

DES MOINES, Iowa – A blank document from the Iowa Department of Public Health has been discovered online, designed to be filled in with the name of an H1N1 virus victim who is required to relocate from his or her home to a quarantine facility.

The form, which began appearing today in e-mails and on the Internet, has concerned a confused public already swimming in conflicting reports about the severity of the swine flu and intrusive government measures that many fear may be taken if the disease becomes a pandemic.

The Iowa document, which WND confirmed with state officials is authentic, has done little to calm the public's fears.

"The Iowa Department of Public Health has determined that you have had contact with a person with Novel Influenza A H1N1," the form reads. "The Department has determined that it is necessary to quarantine your movement to a specific facility to prevent further spread of this disease.

"The Department has determined that quarantine in your home and to the dog (bully), by punctuating his message of displeasure with the weapons with which nature had armed him.

The episode brought to mind our current dilemma. The dog (bully government) has been "chasing" the cat (the American people) for the last 80 to 100 years and the "cat" has yet to turn 180 degrees and punctuate its message of displeasure on the "dog", with the weapons with which nature and our constitution have armed us.

It took over 150 years (1620 to 1775) for the colonials to grow tired of the British government and turn on them, no matter what the consequences. Their brave, courageous and some say fool hardy actions, gave birth to a unique kind of freedom, at great cost. The British were many, heavily armed, outfitted and organized. The colonials were poorly armed and disorganized ..... in reality an unruly, unregulated and untrained militia.

Throughout the battles and skirmishes during the revolution, many feared that victory would never be theirs to celebrate and defeat would come with even greater injustices, intimidation and retribution on the colonials, at the hands of the King's men. Some say providence turned the tide. Other's say the French, who hated the British and helped the Americans because of it, snatched the King's victory right out from under his Generals' noses. Perhaps both are right.

But like the dog chasing the cat, the difference that characterized the American Revolution was what the Americans did. They had finally had enough and "explained" it to the British (bully), by punctuating their message of displeasure with the weapons with which nature, bravery and courage had armed them.

We may rightfully ask, what, in the instance of the cat being chased by the dog, caused the cat to turn on the dog, even though the dog was five times the size of the cat? And along the same lines, what was the catalyst that caused the colonials to turn on the British, even though the colonials were much smaller in number, armament and training? We believe that the catalyst is of the same substance from which heroes are born on the battlefield and it finds its roots in two human emotions, anger and self preservation. Anger and self preservation are the motivation for a corresponding response to any threat.

It was the cat, without regard to his own life, who turned on the dog. It was the colonials, without regard to their safety and security, who turned on the British because they stepped outside of the main stream, the rational and the accepted to overcome their fear. They resisted abusive authority, no matter what the cost. The cat turning on the dog was a form of individual heroism. The American revolution came in the form of collective heroism.

Not a single living, two or four-legged organism (don't know about micro organisms, plants and trees) on Earth likes to be pushed around, chased or bullied. They in fact, have an all-consuming desire to be free. In most cases, the natural reaction to bullying is anger and results in either fight or flight, depending on how nature has armed them.

Our situation in America is different, however. Because of the undaunted bravery of the colonials and the wisdom of the Founding Fathers, we do not have to resort to violence to "explain" it to the bully.

We need only use the tools with which nature has armed us, our intellect, high morals and values, along with the foundation of liberty embedded in our Constitution and we will reverse the destructive path we are currently taking into abject socialism and ultimately, enslavement.

Today, the American people are still capable of collective heroism and the challenge to abusive authority, just as they were during the birth of our freedom some 233 years ago. We see the growing signs of that emerging heroism almost every day now. That those in government are becoming aware of this rising tide, is evident by their irrational panic to pass more controlling legislation before all Hell breaks loose.

Let us emphasize that there is no other country like America and there are no people like the American people, anywhere on earth. Freedom is burned into their souls and as the cat who turned on the dog, the brave ones, the collective American heroes, will not let freedom die, no matter what it takes to preserve it.

So we say to those who oppose individual liberty, the gift from our creator, we are right and you are wrong, because freedom is right and slavery is wrong. We also say to those who work to tear down America's liberty, sovereignty and its moral and ethical values, let the games begin. In the end, we have no doubt that we shall prevail, just like we prevailed on the day that freedom was born when "..... a shot was fired, a shot heard 'round the world."

Stand steady and strong. Tyranny and corruption will be challenged on all fronts. The threshold for a peaceful American revolution is at hand.

Free Press Receiving Probable Evidence on Criminal Activities within Archuleta and LaPlata County Sheriff's & Other Offices.

Over the last several months, individuals in both LaPlata and Archuleta Counties have been presenting documentation to the Free Press regarding apparent corruption by the Sheriff's department of both LaPlata and Archuleta Counties, among other departments and individuals.

This documentation suggests a long standing reign of corruption taking place against citizens of both counties.

Due to the extent of such evidence, and the legal consulting of attorney and attorney groups regarding this evidence, we can only touch on the developing stories, and will not reveal all parties at this time.

Ray Robinette of LaPlata County has extensive material on violations of everything from civil rights and Due Process, to abuse of authority, malicious prosecution, theft of property, harassment, and restraint of trade. Mr. Robinette is preparing a lawsuit claiming damages of $20 million.

In Archuleta County, multiple complaints have come forth regarding abuse of power in the Sheriff's office regarding the failure to prosecute criminal complaints (against one Jason Sorrell for assault where he has threatened, attacked and injured more than a few citizens, and the Sheriff's department ignoring these complaints, as well as malicious prosecution of an innocent individuals. People are fed up with this behavior and are now planning to take legal steps to secure their rights. Stay tuned to the Free Press next printing for greater details of these cases.

This evidence has garnered the attention of legal authorities, and preparations are underway to consolidate the evidence, prepare court filings and to more fully break these stories to the local communities. The Free Press, since last February, has been hearing rumors of these types of things, but now, having citizens coming forth, and seeing the evidence, it can no longer be allowed to fester and grow. Perhaps suits against individuals acting outside their authority, and in their personal capacity will help.

If you have any information on any violations you or others have experienced, please notify the Free Press, as a class action lawsuit is being considered!

Lipstick in School -- Priceless!!

According to a news report, a certain private school in Washington was recently faced with a unique problem. A number of 12-year-old girls were beginning to use lipstick and would put it on in the bathroom.

That was fine, but after they put on their lipstick, they would press their lips to the mirror leaving dozens of little lip prints. Every night the maintenance man would remove them and the next day the girls would put them back.

Finally the principal decided that something had to be done. She called all the girls to the bathroom and met them there with the maintenance man. She explained that all these lip prints were causing a major problem for the custodian who had to clean the mirrors every night.

To demonstrate how difficult it had been to clean the mirrors, she asked the maintenance man to show the girls how much effort was required. He took out a long-handled squeegee, dipped it in the toilet, and cleaned the mirror with it. Since then, there have been no lip prints on the mirror.

There are teachers.... And then there are educators.

WHAT DOES THE LAW SAY ABOUT YOUR INCOME AND LABOR?

By Jeff Maehr

1. "Income is not a wage or compensation for any type of labor. Staples v. U.S., 21 F Supp 737 U.S. Dist. Ct. ED PA, 1937.

2. "The statute and the statute alone determines what is income to be taxed. It taxes only income "derived" from many different sources; one does not "derive income" by rendering services and charging for them." Edwards v. Keith, 231 F. 110 (2nd Cir. 1916)

3. Taxation Key, West 933 - "The Right to receive income or earnings is a right belonging to every person and realization and receipts of income is therefore not a privilege that can be taxed."

That which is to be included is gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal services." The United States Supreme Court, Lucas v. Earl, 281 U.S. 111 (1930).

5. "Simply put, pay from a job is a 'wage,' and wages are not taxable. Congress has taxed INCOME, not compensation." - Conner v. U.S. 303 F Supp. 1187 (1969).

9. INCOME TAX: A tax on the yearly profits "arising from" property, professions, trades, and offices." Henry Campbell Black, A Law Dictionary 612 (1910).

10. INCOME TAX: "An income tax is a tax which relates to product or income from property or from business pursuits." Levi v. City of Louisville, 30 S.W. 973, 974, 97 Ky. 394, 28 L.R.A. 480.

11. "There can be no tax upon a man's right to live and earn his bread by the sweat of his brow." O'Connell v. State Bd. of Equalization, 25 P.2d 114, 125 (Mont. 1933).

12. "The poor man or the man in moderate circumstances does not regard his wages or salary as an income that would have to pay its proportionate tax under this new system." Gov. A.E. Wilson on the Income Tax (16th) Amendment, N.Y. Times, Part 5, Page 13, February 26, 1911.

What is this saying? Your Wage, Salary or Compensation for working is NOT income, according to the law. If your wages "produce" money... interest, etc., then THAT is "income" (derived FROM) your wages, and is taxable, but ONLY Constitutionally.

Some will say that those court cases cited are "old." You bet they are... they were the original law, before the "modern" courts perverted the laws in conjunction with the IRS and the legal system, and defrauded the public through our own ignorance and fear.

All it takes for YOU to be a free person, is to get back to the original laws of the land... get back to knowledge... back to the Constitution... take back your lost freedoms and rights... stand with the law in your hands.

On top of those laws, if you file a W4... for withholding, then you can opt out of this and save a good portion of your income, legally. According to the IRS code, and Case law, you do NOT have to have money taken out of your wages, period. Simply review the actual laws, and challenge your employer, and your tax "expert."

The employer cannot force you to sign a W4, and if the employer would actually review the laws, they would save a big portion of their profits, and YOU would get a 20-30% pay raise instantly. Would that be a bad thing? (See Resource page 22 for documents on W4 laws).

The ONLY way we will win is if more people stand up using the public laws, and demanding their rights. Don't blindly jump into any of this... get back to "schooling," and prove these things for yourself.

All this has been deliberately withheld from you, locking you into a slavery they control because we have become ignorant of the actual laws we are supposed to understand.

If you are sick of being lied to, deceived, defrauded, coerced, threatened... then simply take a stand and STOP the bully. If you haven't proven you owe the so-called "income" taxes, if you haven't looked at how you are being fleeced by the IRS and Federal Reserve... if you can't even point to a single law that commands you to pay "income" taxes, then you choose to be a slave... you choose to be ignorant... you CHOOSE to support corruption and the global agenda. IS THAT WHAT YOU WANT FOR YOU AND YOURS???

You are walking past buried treasure... right below your feet. You can't see it in your daily life, but it is all around you if you but DIG. There's a saying... "Argue for your limitations... and sure enough, there yours."

Take on your master's facade... the matrix they have created for you... keep performing like a good slave... don't rock the boat... and comply with your orders, despite an arsenal of law on your side. What do you want???

Big Box Issue Going to the People... Finally!

Staff Report

Just when you thought the People's rights and authority were once again being trampled, a turn of events takes place. A group of Pagosa Springs Residents decided things were not being done legally and with the help of attorney Matt Roane, decided to challenge the City Governemnt's flippant disregard for proper procedure and laws through a law suit.

A referendum on the decision by the People to accept or reject "Big Box" establishments was initiated some time ago, but the town fought this, and stated that a "time limit" had expired and that the referendum didn't comply with the local ordinances.

In making this decision against the People, Mr. Roane decided to research more into the actual laws on the books regarding how the town council acted, but also the very legality of the existing ordinance 743 itself.

On top of this, When Mr. Roane went to see Ordinance documentation during the 10 day window for public review, he was denied seeing it "till it was completed." He raised the issue of its unavailability to the Town Council and was emailed one the next day. Unfortunately the public was NOT offered, or notified of, the opportunity to review the Ordinance.

The Town Council had a long meeting the evening of Nov.3, and the Town Council instructed their attorney to settle the lawsuit and allow the referendum process to proceed allowing for public input via a petition requiring just 83 signatures of Pagosa Springs Town Residents.

A successful referendum will require 83 signatures. Upon satisfying that requirement, there will be a town-wide election to determine whether or not to repeal existing regulations governing the smart development of big-boxes.

Quarantine, From Page 3

Public Health Medical Director Patricia Quinslick confirmed the state has the form, she told WND it's highly unlikely it will ever be used.

"We've had these kinds of template orders for years, but we hardly ever use them," Quinslick said. "I can count on two hands the number of times - in 20 years - that we've had to relocate a person because of quarantine."

Quinslick wasn't certain who released the blank document, or who signed her name to the bottom of some versions circulating on the Internet, but she wasn't concerned that it's been made public.

"We're not trying to hide anything," she said. "This is the kind of form we use."

Quinslick told WND her department has prepared similar documents for several contagious diseases to "have them ready just in case."

But at the same time, she said, state law requires that when IPDH does need to quarantine someone, it be done in the least restrictive way possible, which typically means in the person's home.

"Usually when we relocate, it's only because they have no place to be, like a homeless tuberculosis patient," Quinslick said, "One time, I recall, we relocated a homeless man to his relative's house."

The Facility Quarantine Order for the H1N1 virus that has been circulated online illustrates Quinslick's point.

Following the order that a person be removed from his or her home, the form contains a blank for explaining the reason, including one of the following: "the person violated a previously issued home quarantine order, the person does not have an appropriate home setting conducive to home quarantine, etc."

Quinslick told WND it was doubly unlikely the state would use the form, since the swine flu has proven less dangerous than earlier estimates.

"I don't anticipate using [the form] for H1N1, since it's been shown to be a very mild disease," Quinslick said. "We found this spring it's not as serious as feared."

As for fears that Iowa is preparing detention centers for rounding up

Constitutional Congressman?

The latest unemployment figures have been released. Washington has poured billions into stimulus packages. Recall that on February 7 of last year, John Salazar "hailed" the stimulus package saying, "I hope the president signs this bill to send the message that help is on the way." Unemployment among our veteran's is 11.3%. Those of you who no longer have jobs in our timber, oil, natural gas, and coal industries, take heart, "help is on the way." Meanwhile, President Obama has announced he will encourage congress to extend unemployment benefits, again.

The answer to record breaking unemployment is not another stimulus package, and it is not spending more money on unemployment benefits. The answer to unemployment is to turn loose the private sector right here in Western Colorado to create jobs. As recently as 2008, almost 78% of the jobs in Colorado were in the private sector. If I were your congressman today, I would go to President Obama and get an exception to his roadless initiative so we can log the two million acres of dead trees we have north of I-70. He has already granted that exception for Alaska. Instead of asking for an exception, John Salazar applauded President Obama's return to road less mismanagement of our BLM and National Forest lands.

We need a congressman with the courage to stand up for working people who have the skills, and the determination to feed their families. Instead, just two weeks ago, John Salazar introduced a bill to expand the size of wilderness areas in Western Colorado. Wake up John. We don't need more wilderness areas right now, we need jobs. I am not a career politician nor have I already run for this seat and lost. Nobody owns me, and they never will. Thanks for listening.

Bob McConnell announced his bid for the Senate seat on September 16th. He wrote a book called "Gentle Expeditions: a Guide to Ethical Mountain Adventure," regarding responsible use of resources. I spoke with Bob and he is as sick of politics and corruption as we are, and wants to get us back to the Constitution and take back our country. ### Take Back our Country or Civil Unrest?

When you look at what's happening in America today, I have to ask myself why there hasn't been more civil unrest taking place in many parts of the country.

Politicians are making a hash of this nation--and much of the rest of the civilized world. We know it. They know it. They know we know it. But we don't feel we can do anything much to stop them.

That right there is the pre-condition for civil unrest---when folks are frustrated and politicians are nervous.

Worse, that was how things stood before last fall's crash. Before pals on both left and right launched the biggest mass transfer of wealth in history---transferring our wealth (what we had left of it!) to their friends on Wall Street and in the banking industry. In other words, that's how things were before things got bad!

Now everybody's talking about the ongoing catastrophe (even if we are in a momentarily sunny mood). But almost nobody is talking about the logical---maybe even inevitable---consequences of cynical or desperate politicians abusing an already fed-up populace; civil unrest.

I mean people taking to the streets. Or mass, resistance. Or crackdowns because the government fears we might do something to upset its apple cart. It's going to happen. Somewhere. At some time. It's going to. Especially when you think of the millions of unemployed or soon-to-be unemployed and the public awareness of this extraordinary wealth that was transferred to a few individuals at levels without historical precedent in America. Hell, there could even be riots. Although few in power are talking about it, rumors abound that governments at many levels are planning for civil unrest. One rumor is about a document supposedly being circulated right now among top federal officials. It's called the "C&R Document"---with C&R standing for "conflict & revolution." The much-storied paper is said to be a plan for controlling the American people when we get out of hand. True? Who knows. But the very rumor tells us a lot about these times.

Other things are not mere rumor. When the federal government established a North American Army Command in 2002, its purpose wasn't to repel foreign invaders. It was domestic operations ---something long and rightly forbidden by the Posse Comitatus Act. In February of 2009, when military commanders in Canada and the U.S. signed a pact allowing their armies to operate inside each other's country they didn't even bother to get authorization from Congress---an illegal and unprecedented move. And once again, the purpose was handling "domestic civil emergencies."

And what of the dozens and dozens of federal agencies that now have SWAT teams? Seriously, what justifies the Bureau of Land Management or the Department of Housing and Urban Development having paramilitary units?

Now maybe you like the idea of an Army that watches over its own citizens. Maybe it makes sense to have a government seize total dictatorial power in event of a health emergency or something else. Maybe you believe SWAT teams will never be used except against bad guys. But do you really trust these people?

Still, peace reigns. Mostly. At least here in North America. But not everywhere. Not long ago, France was brought to its knees by night after night of rioting. In that country it's become almost common for workers to hold their bosses hostage in hopes of winning economic concessions. Greece, too, saw its normal life and business shut down by days of rioting. So did Iceland, a country that's normally the picture of civility. Can the U.S. be forever immune?

It might not take much---and it could be something out of the blue, something impossible to anticipate---to set us against the "Trust us; we'll fix it" political crowd.

Hopefully, unrest will never erupt, because it's not going to be just us taking care of ourselves.

NOBODY REMEMBERS OBAMA AT COLUMBIA

Looking for evidence of Obama's past, Fox News contacted 400 Columbia University students from the period when Obama claims to have been there, but none remembered him.

Wayne Allyn Root was, like Obama, a political science major at Columbia who also graduated in 1983. In 2008, Root says of Obama, "I don't know a single person at Columbia that knew him, and they all know me.

I don't have a classmate who ever knew Barack Obama at Columbia. Ever! Nobody recalls him. I'm not exaggerating, I'm not kidding." Root adds that he was also, like Obama, "Class of '83 political science, pre-law" and says, "You don't get more exact or closer than that. Never met him in my life, don't know anyone who ever met him.

At the class reunion, our 20th reunion five years ago, who was asked to be the speaker of the class? Me.

No one ever heard of Barack! And five years ago, nobody even knew who he was. The guy who writes the class notes, who's kind of the, as we say in New York, the macha who knows everybody, has yet to find a person, a human who ever met him. Is that not strange?

It's very strange." Obama's photograph does not appear in the school's yearbook and Obama consistently declines requests to talk about his years at Columbia, provide school records, or provide the name of any former classmates or friends while at Columbia.

Editor's NOTE: Root graduated as Valedictorian from his high school, Thornton-Donovan School, then graduated from Columbia University in 1983 as a Political Science major (in the same class as President Barack Obama WAS SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN IN).

NOBODY REMEMBERS OBAMA AT COLUMBIA

The above mentioned background on Mr. Obama was sent to me by a Chief Master Sergeant (USAF, ret.) whose 35-year background is in installation and physical security. I have known and worked with him the past 4-years.

My personal view is that this is just more of the same...Obama was not known prior to now, and he is a TROJAN HORSE systematically placed to destroy the United States. His mere 9-month history at the helm of our Nation's government presents ample evidence to support my statement. The programs he has rammed through, the Executive Orders he continues to sign to circumvent the legislative process, the impossible-to-recover deficit which he has burdened our country with another "stimulus" round about to be announced, the absolute radical shift to Marxism he has orchestrated, the weakening of International diplomacy reducing America to "just another country" status, the disrespect for the Constitution of the United States of America he swore to uphold and defend, etc., etc. add up to the notion that Mr. Obama purposefully remained cloistered by powerful masters until such time when he navigated through very charted waters to land where he is currently.

Voting over a hundred times "present" in the Illinois State Senate, and following similar patterns in the United States Senate does not give the appearance of someone who wanted to leave much of a mark. It appears, with the information uncovered by FOX NEWS below, Mr Obama was learning this type of "2-step" for quite a while.

HR 615

The Senate health committee voted 12-11 in favor of a two-page amendment, courtesy of Republican Tom Coburn which would require all Members of Congress and their staff members to enroll in any new government-run health plan.

Congressman John Fleming has proposed an amendment that would require Congressmen and Senators to take the same health care plan that they would force on us. (Under proposed legislation they are exempt.)

Congressman Fleming is encouraging people to go to his Website and sign his petition. The process is very simple. I have done just that at: <http://fleming.house.gov/index.html>

Senator Coburn and Congressman Fleming are both physicians. Regardless of your political beliefs, it sure seems reasonable that Congress should have exactly the same medical coverage that they impose on the rest of us.

You probably heard that, as a result of the overwhelming scandals that the radical left-wing group "ACORN" is involved in, and after a HUGE public outcry, Congress recently voted to de-fund them.

Radical Left-Wing Group ACORN To, AGAIN, Receive MILLIONS of Taxpayer Dollars

The "Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now" -- is a far-left group of "community organizers" that has not only worked extra hard to support liberal causes and get Barack Hussein Obama elected -- they broke numerous laws in the process.

And YOUR taxpayer dollars helped them to do it!

During the last two election cycles, ACORN has been under investigation for election fraud and related offenses in nearly 20 states, for crimes ranging from false voter registrations and illegal voting, to identity theft and records tampering, to using felons as registration workers. And, recently, a private undercover "sting" operation showed ACORN employees were willing to help human sex slave traffickers to run their illegal "businesses" (including child prostitution) -- and how to dodge having to pay taxes, on top of it!

According to the Employment Policies Institute, ACORN is a non-profit (but not federally tax-exempt) organization at the center of a vast web of groups run by long-time anti-corporate activist Wade Rathke and a handful of his closest allies. It operates in at least 38 states, as well as in Canada, Mexico, and Peru, and is integral in a fight to prevent Foreign Direct Investment in India. Rathke said ACORN plans to continue its growth by adding offices in 100 new cities over the next five years, after seeing 100 percent growth in offices between 2003 and 2004.

ACORN claims 200,000 member families (though member dues only account for eight percent of the organization's massive budget), and represents approximately 80,000 union members. It operates "social justice" radio stations, community television groups, and a magazine. It runs home mortgage and tax counseling centers, a voter-mobilization organization, left-wing schools, a furniture company, a consulting firm, and a law/lobbying firm.

It's funded by YOU AND ME -- to the tune of MILLIONS OF TAXPAYER DOLLARS YEARLY!

In fact, ACORN has received more than $53 million in direct taxpayer funding since 1994, and countless millions more through grants from financial institutions throughout the country. And, bills passed this year could give ACORN access to as much as $10 billion more.

The American people were so upset with the extent of ACORN's criminal activities that we demanded that Congress de-fund this radical leftist group. Last month, Congress was forced to do so -- but they TRICKED us, and now ACORN is set to start getting taxpayer funding again, starting on November 1st!

Latest Rally Draws Over 1,000+ In Liberal San Francisco Bay Area

Crowds continue to build as the Tea Party Express II: Countdown to Judgment Day (www.TeaPartyExpress.org) gains momentum! Yesterday in the very liberal San Francisco Bay Area, more than 1,000 people turned out to show their support for smaller government, less deficit-spending, and opposition to government-run healthcare.

The rally held particular importance as a Special Election for Congress takes place on November 3rd in California's 10th Congressional District. Conservative candidate for Congress, David Harmer, spoke at the event.

The Tea Party Express II is a 19-day, 7,000-mile journey across the country with a caravan of vehicles holding tea party rallies in 38 cities across America. The Tea Party Express is advocating for less government spending, an end to the bailouts, lower taxes, opposition to government-run healthcare and opposition to the growth in the size and intrusiveness of

WHO IS BARACK OBAMA?

BY JOE CREWS AND HARVEY WYSONG - Canadianfreepress.com

Barack Obama is less of a person than an image—a brand. People see whatever they want as they do on a Rorschach test. But does anyone really know him?

In fact, he is:

- * An empty suit.
- * A man with no birth certificate.
- * A man who was deserted in childhood by his biological father.
- * A man whose birth records, both in the United States and Kenya, are sealed by government order.
- * A man whose childhood mentor, Frank Marshall Davis, spied on U.S. military installations in Hawaii for the Soviet Union, edited a communist newspaper, authored pornographic novels, and wrote poetry in praise of Joseph Stalin.
- * A man mentored by and still supported by radical Muslims.
- * A man who promised transparency in government, but has spent over a million dollars in legal fees hiding information that would determine his eligibility to be President.
- * A former drug user.
- * A man whose academic records are sealed from kindergarten through law school.
- * A man who arrived in New York in June of 1981 without enough money to get a hotel room, but one month later flew to Indonesia and Pakistan.
- * Why did he go?
- * Who paid his expenses?
- * A man who traveled to Pakistan when it was illegal for U.S. citizens to do so. So what country's passport did he use?
- * A man whose Law School Admission Test scores and grades at Columbia University are known to have been mediocre, but was admitted to Harvard Law School through the intervention of a Saudi named Khalid al-Mansour.
- * A law review editor who never published an article in any law review.
- * A lawyer with no significant accomplishments in the law and no reputation in the legal community.
- * A former State and U.S. Senator, who never authored a piece of legislation.
- * A disciple of the Marxist Saul Alinsky.
- * A product of the Chicago political machine—the most corrupt political organization in America.
- * A man who selects Marxists, corrupt politicians, and criminals as his close political associates and personal friends.
- * A man whose presidential candidacy was endorsed by the Democratic Socialists of America, the Socialist International, and the Workers International League.
- * A man lauded for the literary brilliance of two memoirs, both of which were ghostwritten by others.

* A so-called Christian who says that knowing when human life begins is “above his pay-grade,” but somehow knows that abortion is permissible at any stage.

* A man who thinks “waterboarding” is immoral, but that partial-birth abortion is moral.

* A man who publicly laments slavery in America—which was abolished 150 years ago—but praises Islam, which still practices both slavery and the sexual mutilation of young girls.

* A man who speaks endlessly about helping the less fortunate, but gives almost none of his sizeable income to charity—not even to his half-brother, who is living in squalor in Kenya.

* A man who had the most left-wing voting record in the United State Senate, but was predicted by the press to “govern from the middle.”

* A man who has never created a job, met a payroll, or even operated a lemonade stand, but wants to tell Detroit how to make cars.

* A President who has never before served as an executive in either the private or the public sector.

* A Commander-in-Chief who doesn't know how to shoot a rifle, throw a hand-grenade, drive a tank, fly a plane, or con a ship.

* A Commander-in-Chief who has publicly divulged some of our nation's most important intelligence secrets.

* A man who has been put in charge of the largest economic engine that ever existed, but has never invested in the stock market and admits total ignorance of it.

* A President who says that science will guide his administration, but has no education in the sciences.

* A man who is proficient in reading what is written for him on a teleprompter, but jerks and stammers his way through any off-the-cuff speaking.

* A man whose health records are sealed from childhood to the present day.

* A man whose educational records are sealed from childhood through law school.

* A man who spent 20 years in a church whose pastor espouses Marxist Liberation Theology, anti-Americanism, anti-capitalism, and anti-Semitism, but claims he never heard his pastor utter anti-American, and anti-Semitic statements.

* A man who added more to the National Debt in 100 days than all other Presidents did in the past 220 years, yet feels qualified to lecture Americans about “fiscal responsibility”.

* A man who publicly expressed disdain for the U.S. Constitution on a Chicago radio station because it limited the government's ability to “redistribute wealth.”

* The first American President to bow before a foreign head of state—a Muslim dictator.

* A man who sits and listens submissively while his country is Young Americans for Liberty (YAL) is a youth organization dedicated to restoring this republic to its original intended status. The youth of our country are the future, and schools and campuses all across America are forming YAL groups.

YAL is the continuation of Students for Ron Paul (SFP). In less than 8 months, SFP established over 500 college and high school chapters in all 50 states and over 26,000 students joined the Ron Paul 2008 campaign.

With this network, YAL seeks to recruit, train, educate, and mobilize students on the ideals of liberty and the Constitution. This is not a new beginning but a continuation of a youth movement already brewing in this country. Our objective is to facilitate its success.

A member of Young Americans for Liberty is between the ages of 15 and 39 and pays an annual due. Individuals under the age of 15 can still join, but will be considered Junior members. To start, dues are only $10/year. Benefits include subscription to “Young American Revolution” magazine,

If you are not within this age bracket, don't despair! Senior (over 39) YAL members are welcome to join for a $50 annual donation and will receive many of the same great benefits.

YAL Mission Statement

The mission of Young Americans for Liberty (YAL) is to train, educate, and mobilize youth activists committed to “winning on principle.” Our goal is to cast the leaders of tomorrow and reclaim the policies, candidates, and direction of our government.

YAL Statement of Principles!

We are the Young Americans for Liberty (YAL). As Americans we recognize the God-given natural rights of life, liberty, and property set forth by our Founding Fathers. Our country was created to protect the freedoms of the individual and directed by we the people.

We recognize that freedom deserves responsibility and therefore we hold ourselves to a high moral character and conduct. Integrity emphasizes our stance towards action. Principle defines our outlook towards government. Peace and prosperity drives our ambitions towards our countrymen.

We inherit a corrupt, coercive world that has lost respect for voluntary action. Our government has failed and dragged our country into moral decay. The political class dominates the agenda with a violent, callous, controlling grip. And, for this we do not stand. We welcome limited government conservatives, classical liberals, and libertarians who trust in the creed we set forth.

WE, as Young Americans for Liberty believe:

- THAT government is the negation of liberty;
- THAT voluntary action is the only ethical behavior;
- THAT respect for the individual's property is fundamental to a peaceful society;
- THAT violent action is only warranted in defense of one's property;
- THAT the individual owns his/her body and is therefore responsible for his/her actions;
- THAT society is a responsibility of the people, not the government.

YAL is in partnership with Campaign for Liberty (campaignforliberty.org) and many other freedom groups and organizations. For more Information, go to www.yaliberty.org/

OnStar Stolen Vehicle Slowdown Helps Recover Carjacked Vehicle, Prevents High-Speed Chase

Law Enforcement Officials Credit Service with Fast and Safe Recovery of 2009 Chevrolet Tahoe.

Detroit, Mich. – GM and OnStar announce the use of OnStar’s Stolen Vehicle Slowdown (SVS) service to help safely recover a 2009 Chevrolet Tahoe that was carjacked at gunpoint from a subscriber in Visalia, California. This is the first time that SVS has been activated to help a subscriber in a carjacking situation.

At approximately 3:18 a.m. PDT on Sunday, Oct. 18, Lindsay, California resident Jose Ruiz and his cousin were carjacked by a lone assailant wielding a shotgun. The perpetrator ordered the two men out of the vehicle, robbed them of personal belongings and sped off in the Tahoe.

Ruiz was able to flag down a police officer to report the incident. He notified them that his vehicle was equipped with OnStar, and requested that the Visalia officers leverage the service to help recover his vehicle.

Once OnStar advisors verified that the Tahoe had been stolen and that the subscriber had requested assistance, they were able to quickly locate the Tahoe and alert the Visalia officers of its location. They were also then able to initiate OnStar’s newest stolen vehicle recovery service, Remote Ignition Block, to ensure that if the suspect stopped the vehicle before the officers were able to locate it visually, he wouldn’t be able to restart it. Once officers had the vehicle in sight, they requested that Stolen Vehicle Slowdown be initiated. Once the vehicle had been safely slowed to a stop, the suspect then attempted to escape on foot, but was quickly apprehended by officers without incident.

Less than 16 minutes after OnStar was first contacted, Ruiz’ Tahoe was safely recovered.

“While this was the first time that we’ve used the Stolen Vehicle Slowdown service, we have used OnStar in several other cases to help locate and recover stolen vehicles. It’s a valuable tool for our agency,” shared Visalia Police Department Sergeant Steven Phillips. “In this case, it helped us not only safely recover a vehicle for a local citizen, but also prevented a dangerous high-speed chase and allowed us to quickly apprehend a suspect. It’s a win for everyone.”

While obviously thrilled to have his vehicle back, Ruiz was even more pleased that no lives were lost and no one was injured in the incident.

“As soon as he took my car, the first thing I thought of was to call OnStar because I knew they could get it back,” Ruiz recalled. “It was a frightening situation, but I know it could have been a lot worse. I’m very grateful that OnStar was there for me.”

Since launch in October of 2008, OnStar’s Stolen Vehicle Slowdown service has been deployed 38 times in a wide variety of situations, including rental vehicles, thefts from dealers and on stationary vehicles in order to prevent a high-speed chase from potentially starting.

In 2008, 334 people were killed in the U.S. in crashes that resulted from police pursuits, according to the National Highway Traffic and Safety Administration. Stolen Vehicle Slowdown helps take high speed pursuits out of the equation, and reduces the chance that a subscriber’s stolen vehicle will be crashed during a chase.

“This situation allowed us to leverage our full suite of Stolen Vehicle Assistance services – Vehicle Location, RIB and SVS,” said OnStar President Walt Dorfstatter. “This is the perfect illustration of how our services come together for the benefit of our subscribers and the community.”

How Stolen Vehicle Slowdown Works Once an OnStar subscriber has reported a stolen vehicle to law enforcement, he or she can call OnStar and request Stolen Vehicle Assistance. An OnStar Advisor will use advanced Global Positioning Satellite technology to pinpoint the exact location of the stolen vehicle which will be provided only to law enforcement.

Once law enforcement officials have the stolen vehicle in a clear line of sight to know conditions are safe, they can request that the OnStar Advisor remotely slow it down. OnStar will then send a signal to the vehicle’s engine, reducing engine power and gradually slowing the vehicle to idle speed while all other vehicle systems, including power steering and brakes, remain fully operational.

OnStar has offered Stolen Vehicle Assistance services with GPS location since 1996. It now receives approximately 500 Stolen Vehicle Assistance requests from subscribers each month, and has helped in nearly 40,000 requests over the past twelve years. OnStar’s suite of services also includes Automatic Crash Response, Emergency Services, Remote Door Unlock, Roadside Assistance, Crisis Assist, OnStar Turn-by-Turn Navigation, Hands Free Calling and OnStar Vehicle Diagnostics.

OnStar’s Stolen Vehicle Slowdown was put into production in October of 2008 and is exclusively on GM vehicles in the U.S. and Canada. The service is included in the OnStar subscription that comes standard for one year on eligible Model Year 2009 and newer OnStar-equipped vehicles. Subscribers who prefer not to have the Stolen Vehicle Slowdown capability on their vehicle may contact OnStar to opt out of the service at any time. The rest of their OnStar services will remain active and unaffected.

Editor’s Note:

Aaahhh... do I need to point out the obvious here? The service sounds great, and wonderful for a totally corrupt society. How many stolen vehicles are there in America? How many are covered by insurance against this?

OK... so how many people feel “secure” in having “OnStar watching over them,” and feeling safe? In the hands of a good government and police force, I’d feel great, but what if this is a simple means to be able to stop you dead in your tracks when you feel threatened by YOUR government, and are on the move?

What about potentially freezing ALL vehicles with this technology soon? Do you really believe this technology is “optional?” You press a button and you’re “free” of their control? LOL... How stupid are we getting?

The net continues to lower around us all... in as many ways as they can think of. Keep hammering on every aspect of our lives... what we drive, what we buy, our communications, our finances, our very habits...

SHERIFFS NEED TO TAKE THE LEAD

By Jim R. Schwiesow - September 4, 2006 - NewsWithViews.com

It has come to my attention that Maricopa County Sheriff Joe Arpaio has set up a militia to help deal with the increasing crime problems in his jurisdiction wrought by an ever increasing flood of illegal aliens. Sheriff Arpaio ought to be commended for his on going efforts in behalf of the law-abiding citizens of Maricopa County. Maybe in Arizona this will be the case, and he will receive the support of the local politicians and that of those whom he has sworn to protect. But the chances are much more likely that if he has not already undergone an all out serious assault on his character and integrity by a cadre of political hacks, jealous professional rivals and bleeding hearts he most probably will. To be successful and effective is to invite censure and reproach from political cretins and apostate associates. Let me tell you how I know this.

In late 1999, as Sheriff of Sioux County, I set up an armed militia, or as it is more likely to be called, a Sheriff's Posse. Y2K was rapidly approaching and I reasoned that in the event that major civil disorder should occur, and cause something of the nature that we witnessed in New Orleans, we should have an armed force ready to help oversee the safety and welfare of the people in my county. I already knew what the people of New Orleans learned... that the feds couldn't be trusted to differentiate between criminal marauders and law-abiding citizens.

The statutes of the State of Iowa provide the authority for the sheriffs' of the state to summon the power of the county, and to deputize citizens to assist them in carrying out their duties. I had in my county 400 solid citizens to whom I had issued concealed weapons permits. I knew these people and trusted them implicitly. Each of these individuals had undergone a thorough criminal background check and they were of unimpeachable character. Sensing that I had a great pool of armed and intelligent people to select from, I contacted these permit holders, both men and women, and asked if they would be willing to serve as members of a sheriff's posse.

Except for a handful of elderly citizens who heart-brokenly told me that they felt they were too old to function effectively as a posse member, all of those whom I contacted accepted willingly and with enthusiasm. I advised those who felt that their more advanced age would prohibit their service that there were many things that they could do beside just carry a gun and confront outlaws, and they signed up also. Now all hell broke loose, but before I get into that, I want to give you some additional background.

I have served forty-three years in law enforcement. And if you count three years as a military policeman in the occupying forces in post war Berlin, Germany I have a total of forty-six years of law enforcement service. I served fifteen years as a municipal police officer, and then I ran for the office of county sheriff, and was elected. In 1977 I was sworn in to the first of seven consecutive four-year terms of office. During my twenty-eight years as sheriff I was able to build an office of considerable stature with capabilities and abilities, which had been heretofore lacking in the office. In 1979 I was elected "Iowa Sheriff of the Year" by the Iowa State

Sheriffs' and Deputies' Association, and I served for eight consecutive years as a governor's appointee to the Iowa Board of Corrections. The solid reputation of the office was widely known, and I received yearly hundreds of inquiries and requests for applications for positions on the staff. All of this counted for nothing when the crap hit the fan over my formation of a sheriff's posse.

Anyone familiar with county level politics will tell you that if a county officer succeeds and makes his office one of admiration and respect, this will almost always engender the animosity and jealousy of other county offices, and particularly that of the county board of supervisors, or as they are called in some states the board of commissioners. I can truthfully say that there was never a time during my entire twenty-eight years as sheriff that the board of supervisors did not consider me to be other than an enemy to be dominated and controlled. They used every imaginable tactic throughout the entirety of my service to impede, denigrate and hold back the progress of my office. The more accolades the sheriff's office received for service and excellence the worse the envy and animosity became. The only thing that saved my political hide during my first five terms in office was that my office was very effective in protecting the lives, rights and property of the citizens and therefore had excellent public support. We will see that this also changed through the years as the ethics and morals of the new generation transmuted. But, while this public support held and was consistent the board had to be covert and underhanded in their effort to undermine the sheriff's office.

Their chance finally arrived with my formation of a sheriff's posse. And they immediately seized their opportunity to vilify the sheriff. In open board meetings, with media present, they never missed a chance to refer to me as a wild-eyed and dangerous nutcase who was assembling a lynch mob. They would invite me to their meetings on the pretense of discussing office issues, and then call the TV stations with anonymous tips that something big was going on with the sheriff's office that was worthy of media coverage.

When I would arrive at the meetings, invariably the TV cameras would be already in place. The pretext use to lure me to the meeting would be forgotten, and board members would bait me with inflammatory comments. And then as the TV cameras rolled and the reporters scribbled frantically on their pads the good times would roll, for all, of course, but me. They said in one of their meetings that, "I had left the farm." Meaning of course that because I was concerned enough to plan for the safety of the citizens in the county by assembling a Sheriff's Posse that I had taken leave of my senses.

These events generated media frenzy and the comments made by board members were appearing in publications from coast to coast. The Wall Street Journal, for whom I had previously had some respect, ran a demeaning article, in which they highlighted the board's "left the farm" comment, on their front page. The media sensationalism and hysteria became so intense that my heretofore-public support began to wane and dissipate. The Board was elated and poured it on with intensity. Every comment that I made to the media was either taken out of context or edited. I was almost always misquoted and the so-called news articles in the area papers were no more than biased editorials by young and dumb reporters. I finally quit making comments and public statement, and I refused to meet with, or talk to, the print or electronic media people. Mind you all of this because I cared enough about the people, whom I served, to want to protect them and ensure their safety and secure their constitutional rights in times of crisis.

But the board wasn't through with me yet. They smelled blood in the water, and like the sharks that they were they intensified their smear campaign and morphed it into a crusade to get rid of me. They surreptitiously approached my staff people and were able to assemble from among them a cadre of disloyal deputies to help them with their cause. I was inundated with union grievances, and there were many outright and deliberate violations of my administrative policies. It became so bad that I had to demote an administrative Lieutenant and reassign him to patrol duty. The board immediately took up his cause, and once again the media frenzy was re-ignited. The board entertained the deputy at their meetings and commiserated with him in open meetings to which I had not been invited.

Interviews with the Lieutenant were set up during which he actually cried in front of the TV cameras. He unashamedly blubbered that the reduction in his salary was starving his family, this even though he was making $50,000.00 a year plus $21,000.00 in benefits after his demotion. The bleeding hearts were all over me despite the fact that the Iowa Code made provision for just such a demotion. By statute the sheriff has the right to politically appoint his first two deputies and the appointments, if made, may be withdrawn without cause. I had cause, but this made little difference as the people, were beginning to believe, due to a pattern of frequent repetition, the manure being shoveled by the board, the media and the shameless deputy.

There is a lesson to be learned from this, the media is never interested in the truth of a matter or even in an impartial probe of the facts of a situation. They thrive on controversy and sensationalism and will go to great lengths to promote it if it is not present. They choose a side and then expend all of their energy making sure that their side wins in the realm of public opinion. They never used my name in a sentence without preceding it with the word controversial. I was routinely referred to as, "controversial sheriff Jim Schwiesow." We have been programmed to be a nation of sheep and the concept of justice is now completely warped. People will cry and sob over the plight of criminals, killers, prison inmates, and insubordinate employees, and ignore the damage inflicted by these people.

Thirty years ago people would have looked at the circumstances of my situation, said hogwash and moved on with their lives. Now, however, the continual caterwauling and carrying on took root in gullible minds and enabled the board and the local party officials to promote the candidacy of the disloyal and shame deficient former Lieutenant for a run for the sheriff's office. The problem was that I still had a year and a half to serve on my term of office. If they were to be rid of me this had to be dealt with.

One day one of the board members called me and asked me to meet him in a restaurant in a town situated in a neighboring county. I was suspicious, but could not resist hearing of what kind of further skullduggery the board was up to. After some phony preliminaries, this supervisor got down to business and made a proposal that he felt I wouldn't be able to resist. He told me that the board would be willing to buy out the remaining year and a half of my term of office for $150,000.00. I said to him that I believed this to be illegal, and he replied that the board had consulted the county attorney (another story here) and that she had informed them that it was entirely legal. In order to ascertain if he was acting on behalf of the entire board I asked him to put it in writing.

The following day he appeared at my office and asked to speak with me privately. He had with him a handwritten proposal the content of which was that the board would pay me $150,000.00 either in one lump sum or in installments if I would resign my position as sheriff. The supervisor advised that the board would make a public release stating that I would be a paid (but inactive) consultant in exchange for the money. I said to the man, "Let me get this straight, you are willing to soak the taxpayers of this county an extra $150,000.00 by paying me and a newly appointed sheriff a total of $300,000.00 over the next year and a half?" He replied, with a look on his face, which was supposed to make me believe that my statement had hurt his feelings, that they were just being kind and offering me an early retirement package. I said, "Sure you are, now I'll tell you what I am going to do, I'm going to serve out every day of every week of every month of my term of office." And with that we parted company, but not before he said to me, "You are being foolish, you could have used the money to buy that land in Arizona which you want."

So there you have it, a sad true tale of the sheriff who wanted to set up a militia to provide for the safety and well being of those he had sworn to protect. I might add that I did set up a militia, despite the board of supervisors and despite a stupidly hostile media. I had calls from states attorneys and sheriffs' from across the country with statements of support and inquiries as to the language of the state law, which allowed me to do so.

Sheriff Mack, who spoke several months ago to a crowd in Pagosa, is working with approximately 900 sheriff elections in 2010... Areas which want a Constitutional Sheriff... someone who is not a coward, not fearful of the law and their duty... someone who will create such a defensive "militia" of honorable citizens, to defend our county and make a change in the corrupt politics many counties have to deal with. How about a Constitutional Sheriff???

It's going to be "us against them." It might be workers against bosses. Or the poor against bankers. Or blacks against Hispanics. Or little folk against Big Men in public office. Or farmers against the USDA. Or xenophobes against xenophiles. But, however it happens, the implications aren't as Boy-Scoutish as just taking care of ourselves in an emergency.

But in every case, preparedness, foreknowledge, and a cool head will definitely come in handy.

Some of us already have lines in the sand that would inspire us to resist abuses of authority. And that, right there, is something our would-be masters fear---our disobedience. What will happen? And when? Nobody has a crystal ball. But the combination of public frustration and governmental apprehension is an explosive one. Someday, somebody will light the match. And it might not be that far away.

Republican National Committee Letter for money... How to Respond!

If any of you get those letters from the RNC or any other Republican organization, asking you for donations to "get more Republicans elected", don't throw them in the trash! They are giving you a chance to blister their butts and they're paying the freight by supplying you with a postage-paid return envelope.

We can turn the Republican Party around and set them on a "Reagan Conservative" path, but you have to let them know about your disappointment with where they are now.

The following is my latest missive to the RNC. I'm not treating them gently and I don't think you should either. They have to get the message and it's up to us to beat it into them.

Republican National Committee, 310 First St. SE Washington, DC.

You have the nerve to ask me to donate to the Republican Party after you spent $900,000 of our contribution money supporting a Republican RINO in the NY Congressional District 23 race?

Your candidate was further left than Bill Owens, her Democrat opponent, and after she withdrew from the race she endorsed the Democrat, and you wanted me to help elect her?

Even the RNC chairman, Michael Steele, was pulling for her.

You are working against the best interests of the Republican rank and file. You are spending our money to kill the Republican Party. We're not willing to turn this party into Democrat Lite. You will not get one more nickel from the conservatives in the party. We're cutting you off.

We'll continue to donate to conservative incumbents and candidates but you RINOs can go straight to Hell and take your party with you!

Roger Hazlewood, Former contributor, Cortez, Colorado that there would be no election of officers this fall because there were not enough candidates to be on the ballot. For an organization of some 1000+ members, this is a disgrace.

The major fault that the current Board could not find candidates offices lies not with the membership but with the current Board of Directors. Because of poor leadership, members of the organization have not cared to be involved with the organization. The reflection is on the Board. When an organization like ASI is well run, people are eager to assist.

This year's Board has had numerous resignations because of the power-grabbing tactics by several officers.

The truth is that the Board was handed a slate of officers in September. That slate was only one person short, with plenty of time to find one more person. However, because some Board members did not approve of those on the slate, they declared the slate to be illegal, claiming that some on the slate had already stated they would not run. We wonder if "changing your mind" is also illegal. The Board did not bother to check with each person listed. All had indicated their desire to run so long as the current officers would no longer be on the Board for the next calendar year.

The election should have been held in October. Unfortunately, at that time, the President claimed everyone was "too busy planning for Octoberfest" to hold an election. This has never been true in the past. The real truth is that officers have poorly run the business of the Board.

For a wonderful group of senior citizens, this is a shame, and the Board's action regarding an election is totally unacceptable!

10 QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF BEFORE GETTING A FLU SHOT

SEE INSIDE

THE FLU SHOT IN THE NEWS

WORLD NET DAILY - VACCINES MAY FUEL AUTISM EPIDEMIC. "During the last two decades the chance of a child being diagnosed with autism has skyrocketed from one in 10,000 to one in 150."

BLAYLOCK WELLNESS REPORT - One recent study found that people who are over the age of 55 and receive the flu vaccine every year for five years in a row increase their risk of developing Alzheimer's disease tenfold.

DR. LEONARD G. HOROWITZ - WHO officials now direct US government officials who falsely claim these vaccines are "safe and effective." This is a lie because side effects that occur more than 6 weeks after injections are excluded, including the vast majority of vaccine illnesses and deaths. The ingredients in all flu vaccines are poisonous and potentially deadly.

Limited space prevents posting most of the news articles now in print. Abundant information is available on the Internet. Go to www.youtube.com and search for "FLU" and "mercury" and "H1N1". You will find many informative videos. Sadly, however, most of this truth is not allowed by the Government to be aired on major media.

BE AWARE OF THE DANGERS LURKING INSIDE THE FLU VACCINATION SHOT

The information presented in these pages is intended to extend your knowledge about the H1N1 Flu Vaccination and the possible dangers and side effects proven to occur in many who have had these chemicals and compounds injected into their bodies.

The person giving you this information is doing so because he or she is concerned for your wellbeing and is aware of these possible dangers. This person is also aware of the fact that the corporations involved in the manufacturing and distribution of this "vaccine" are more concerned with profits than human safety and health.

We know this to be true because these corporations are fully aware of this information but do not freely give it knowing that by doing so they will not see as much profit. The sad truth is that in any corporation, vaccine industry or others, the bottom line is the dollar, not your health.

BEFORE YOU GET THE FLU SHOT

TEN QUESTIONS TO ASK BEFORE GETTING THE H1N1 FLU SHOT

1. Am I or is my child sick NOW?

Vaccination and immunization shots often cause severe reactions if you are ill when receiving them.

2. Have I or my child had a bad reaction to a vaccination before?

Many components in vaccination and immunization shots cause similar reactions each time the shot is given. A previous bad experience should be a warning to anyone to be concerned.

3. Does my child or I have a personal or family history of:

- o Vaccine reactions?
- o Convulsions or neurological disorders?
- o Severe allergies?
- o Immune system disorders?

Symptoms are commonly similar among family members. Check with family and be aware of problems others in your family may have had.

4. Do you know if you or your child is at high risk of reacting?

There are MANY factors related to health concerns and the effects of vaccinations. Always check with your doctor before getting any shot to be sure it is safe to get the injection.

5. Do I know how to identify a vaccination reaction?

Reactions to vaccinations and immunizations vary in many ways. Being able to identify a reaction so immediate treatment can be given can often result in life or death. Knowing a reaction is occurring is vital.

6. Do I know how to report a vaccination reaction?

Be sure to have all the information about who to call if a reaction occurs before receiving any vaccination or immunization

7. Do I know the vaccine manufacturer's name and lot number?

Get this information off the bottle before you get the shot. A bad batch needs to be identified to prevent others from also having problems. Knowing the lot number is the only way to track a bad batch.

8. Do I know what is in the vaccination being put in my body?

You read the labels at the store when you buy groceries so you know what you eat. Read the label on the bottle to see what the vaccination is made of. The following is a list of components known to be in various vaccination and immunization shots.

Aluminum hydroxide, aluminum phosphate, ammonium sulfate, amphotericin B, animal tissues: pig blood, horse blood, rabbit brain, dog kidney, monkey kidney, chick embryo, chicken egg, duck egg, calf (bovine) serum, betapropiolactone, fetal bovine serum, formaldehyde, formalin, gelatin, glycerol, human diploid cells (originating from human aborted fetal tissue), hydrolyzed gelatin, mercury thimerosal (thimerosal, Merthiolate®), monosodium glutamate (MSG), neomycin, neomycin sulfate, phenol red indicator, phenoxethanol (antifreeze), potassium diphosphate, potassium monophosphate, polymyxin B, polysorbate 20, polysorbate 80, porcine (pig) pancreatic hydrolyzate of casein, residual MRC5 proteins, sorbitol, tri(n)butylphosphate, VERO cells, a continuous line of monkey kidney cells, squaline (known to have caused Lou Gehrig's Disease (ALS) and Gulf War Syndrome in soldiers given anthrax vaccine), and washed sheep red blood

9. Do I know I have the choice TO NOT VACCINATE?

No matter who says what, your body is yours and YOU have the choice of what goes into your body.

10. Do I know of NATURAL cures?

Many do not realize that there are things that can be used that are natural and completely safe and much more effective against viruses, infections, diseases, and infirmities. The fact is you do not need to expose yourself and your children to the dangers of any injection or treatments provided by the vaccination or medical industry.

What is Wrong with Leadership? by Daniel Lyon

A commonality runs across the planet and across the ages. This seemingly ubiquitous, unavoidable element is responsible for virtually every national and world troubles.

It inevitably leads to loss of life, wealth, national resources, has caused poverty and squalor, poor health and property loss, and has always led to the fall of a nation. What is this mysterious element? It is corrupt leadership.

The question to ask is WHY? Why should this be the "norm" and not "good" leadership? If we were to play the odds, mathematically, there should be an average where evil and good leaders were about equal.

Averages, and even pure chance, dictates that evil should NOT prevail on a regular basis... unless there is some outside source that is skewing the results, and having an unseen impact on such leaders.

Prov 29:2 "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; But when a wicked man rules, the people groan. NKJV throughout.

You don't have to be a rocket scientist or genius to see history's record. It is irrefutable. Very few nations and lands have had leadership that actually profitted the very people the leaders were to serve and protect.

However, once again we have to ask ourselves, WHY is this? The answer is not something many people agree with... even many so called Christians. In fact, it is the rejection of these unseen forces that encourage people in doing what is right in their own eyes, and NOT standing against this enemy.

What is this enemy?

Eph 6:12 "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places."

The bible speaks quite often of there being a dimension of spirit beings which have made themselves the enemy of God and man. These beings were once part of the creator's world... His kingdom, but they rebelled, and were cast out of His world...

Isa 14:12 "How you are fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, You who weakened the nations! :13 For you have said in your heart: 'I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation On the farthest sides of the north; :14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High.' 15 Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, To the lowest depths of the Pit.."

The bible refers to a fallen angel... one who was the greatest created being of God. This being began to turn from truth and laws, to his own thinking and his own lusts. Notice this being felt he was a great one, someone to be equal with the supreme being of the universe, but this rebellion not only got him kicked out of this realm, but he also took 1/3rd of the created angels with him, and they were all cast out...

Rev 12:3 "And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. :4 His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth." NKJV

Rev 12:7 "And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought, 8 but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer. :9 ... he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

Stars are often used as a biblical definition for angels. This being used his talents and abilities to turn many of the other angels to his perverted, selfish, greedy way of thinking...

Ezek 28:12 "You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. 13 You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz and emerald, chrysolite, onyx and jasper, sapphire, turquoise and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made of gold; on the day you were created they were prepared. :14 You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you. You were on the holy mount of God; you walked among the fiery stones.

:15 You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you. :16 Through your widespread trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned. So I drove you in disgrace from the mount of God, and I expelled you, O guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones. :17 Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor. So I threw you to the earth;" NIV

Notice where this being (along with his angels) were cast... to the earth, where they are to this day. It is this unseen enemy, this being, who influences this world...

Eph 2:1 "...in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience...

This entity has the power of the air... the power to "broadcast" thoughts, feelings, motives into unsuspecting, and even willing, people, like radio waves. The key to understanding this article is that in most cases, it takes the opportunity for this type of influence to find fruit, opportunity always brought about by leadership positions.

This being has many names, but the most common is Satan, the devil. It is his influence so many in this world actively listen to and follow, albeit unknowingly in many cases, but very knowingly in many others... actively seeking out this entity and his fallen angels, and looking for "spiritual" help to accomplish their leader's will. This is exactly what Christ was speaking about...

John 8:43 "Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word. 44 You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it."

Some find this fairy tale stuff, but it is quite real. In fact, this trend, this influence, was prophesied in genesis...

Gen 3:13 "The woman said,"The serpent deceived me, and I ate." :14 So the LORD God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this, You are cursed more than all cattle, and more than every beast of the field; On your belly you shall go, And you shall eat dust all the days of your life. :15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed;"

This was Satan's first contact with humans... his first communication in testing mankind. (As a side note, notice that this "serpent," likely a tool (offspring?) of Satan and not Satan himself, apparently walked upright prior to being cursed by God, and was not a "snake" as most believe, but a creature that lived on earth... more on that next article).

Notice that this speaks of not only a prophecy about Christ ("her seed), but what? "Your seed." You mean this being actually has "seed?" That's what it says. Christ called those who followed and submitted to this being as their "father."

angry passenger pushed his way to the desk. He slapped his ticket on the counter and said, "I HAVE to be on this flight and it has to be FIRST CLASS."

The agent replied, "I'm sorry, sir. I'll be happy to try to help you, but I've got to help these folks first; and then I'm sure we'll be able to work something out."

The passenger was unimpressed. He asked loudly, so that the passengers behind him could hear, "DO YOU HAVE ANY IDEA WHO I AM?"

Without hesitating, the agent smiled and grabbed her public address microphone. "May I have your attention, please?", she began, her voice heard clearly throughout the terminal. "We have a passenger here at Gate 14 WHO DOES NOT KNOW WHO HE IS. If anyone can help him find his identity, please come to Gate 14."

With the folks behind him in line laughing hysterically, the man glared at the United agent, gritted his teeth, and said, "F*** You!"

Without flinching, she smiled and said, "I'm sorry sir, you'll have to get in line for that, too."

Rendition trial ends with Milan CIA chief given eight years --First prosecution for US abduction of suspects to torture states --

Italian court convicts Robert Lady and 23 others in absentia 04 Nov 2009 The former head of the CIA in Milan has been given an eight-year jail sentence for kidnapping at the end of the first trial anywhere in the world involving the agency's "extraordinary rendition" programme.

Robert Lady was tried in his absence and convicted of helping to organise the seizure of Osama Moustafa Hassan Nasr, known as Abu Omar, from a Milan street in February 2003. His superior, Jeff Castelli, the head of the CIA in Italy at the time, was acquitted on the grounds that he was covered by diplomatic immunity.

Most of the other 23 alleged CIA operatives on trial were given five-year jail sentences in their absence. Extraordinary rendition involved the abduction of suspects and their forcible transfer for interrogation to third countries, often states in which torture was routinely employed.

CFR Recording Suggests Creating False Scarcity To Drive Up Demand For H1N1 Vaccine

During part of the discussion (http://www.cfr.org/publication/20442/session\_i\_of\_a\_council\_on\_foreign\_relations\_symposium\_on\_pandemic\_influenza.html) on whether or not the vaccine should be made mandatory for health workers and school children, Lone Simonsen, Research Professor and Research Director at the Department of Global Health, George Washington University, suggests creating an artificial scarcity in order to ramp up demand for the vaccine.

"I think what would work better would be to say that there was a shortage and people tend to buy more of something that's in demand. (Laughter.) We saw that -- there was one season where, really, people lined up all night to get a flu shot." Simonsen says, much to the amusement of the other attendees at the symposium.

Here's the shortened version of the audio of this false "scarcity" discussion... <http://www.infowars.net/articles/november2009/031109CFR.htm>, and you DON'T want to miss this condescending attack on the intelligence of Americans... or... are they RIGHT on about our Ignorance in running to obey our masters??? For the entire discussion, go to:

What A Difference A Year Makes!

One year ago Barack Obama turned the political establishment upside down with a resounding national election that, according to so-called experts, spelled the end of influence and legitimacy for the GOP for years, perhaps decades to come. However, a mere 12 months later, Republicans have dramatically turned around their fortunes with two high-profile gubernatorial victories in Virginia and New Jersey -- both by comfortable margins.

In Virginia, Republicans won the top three offices (Governor, Lt. Governor, and Attorney General) in Virginia by sweeping margins. Republican Bob McDonnell won the gubernatorial race by a shattering 17 percent margin over Democrat Creigh Deeds.

Not only did McDonnell win in the vast majority of Virginia counties, but he also won in the three largest suburban counties: Fairfax, Loudoun, and Prince William, which trend Democratic and which Obama won by significant margins. He also took Obama successes among independents and turned it around to win 63 percent of those voters.

4.5 MILLION 'PINK SLIPS'!

WASHINGTON – Hundreds, thousands, tens of thousands of "pink slips" have been dispatched to members of Congress just this week, raising the total sent by Americans worried about the future of their nation to 4.5 million.

Such a result is starting to get the attention of Congress. Rep. Tom Price, R-Ga., confirmed that yesterday, telling radio talk show host Janet Porter, one of the originators of the plan, "I can't thank you enough for your wonderful leadership."

He said members of Congress are talking about the pink slip campaign, but "they're talking about it behind closed doors, in elevators, in hushed tones. They ask each other how many of those did you get today?"

Barry Obama's Health Care Reform Bill - by Linda Mack

Anyone on Medicare is encouraged to sign up early for the all, new Barry Obama's Deluxe Health Care Reform Package. That's right, you will be forced by law to pay for Senior Health Care benefits that you will never receive. A Medicare Representative will graciously come to your home and discuss your preferred method of death by age 65. As stated in the Bill's prevision on page 425, you'll have full opportunity to openly and shamelessly choose how to die. Perhaps you'll decide to end it all with your specially, formulated prescription drug base or the all new, pharmaceutically-designed little black pill. Or maybe Doctor Kavorkian's carbon-monoxide gas mask would be more affordable to your over-taxed and failing budget. Rest assured, your government is working ever harder with your tax dollars to steadily offer you cheaper solutions to their "prescribed" self extermination, like the gas chambers at Dachau for one example.

If you prefer to take matters into your own hands but require assistance, you can order your very own personal guillotine or scaffold, with step-by-step easy to read print and color coded assembly. The government will offer your survivors a sizeable "tax break" should you choose a simpler method such as auto-asphyxiation by use of the common plastic bag, or an incidental bath tub drowning. Your remains will be collected by a state appointed "extermination team," cremated, and a complimentary corrugated, cardboard container will be provided. A brief, but respectable graveside service will also be included complete with mourners, for that all endearing touch. Don't wait. Call Medicare today and schedule your life ending appointment now, so that your government doesn't have to do it for you.

Dear President Obama...

- Why are you hiding your real birth certificate?
- Where did the "transparency" you promised go?
- Why are you doing everything opposite to what you promised us?
- Why do you want to change our country to a socialist loser nation?
- Why are you violating your Oath of Office to defend the Constitution, and American People
- Why are you spending us into a black hole of debt mathematically impossible to pay off? Both Obama and his critical teleprompter are afraid to answer these questions truthfully. His actions during the last 10 months, however, do not lie. The facts compiled in this book will send a shiver down your spine and give you all the ammunition to win arguments with liberal co-workers. Ask them if this is the hope and change they voted for. <http://www.patriotdepot.com/>

"The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight of hand that was every invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin .. Bankers own the earth. Take it away from them but leave them the power to create money, and with a flick of a pen, they will create enough money to buy it back again .. Take this great power away from them and all great fortunes like mine will disappear, for then this would be a better and happier world to live in .. But if you want to continue to be the slaves of bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let bankers continue to create money and control credit." - Sir Josiah Stamp, President, Bank of England, 1920's.

FREE PRESS DONATIONS: IS FREEDOM WORTH IT, OR NOT?

The Free Press has received numerous requests for papers to go to Northern Colorado, across to Michigan and beyond, and across the Southeast, to Missouri and beyond. People are hungry for truth, and for being able to do something to defend liberty.

People are stepping up to help distribute the Free Press, in many places, but this takes money to print all these papers. We actually could print 10,000 or more copies with contacts we have... from truckers traveling across America, North and South, to visitors who want to bring bundles of the paper back with them to their home areas to give to patriots in their area. Freedom is popular!

The Free Press is free to all, but it is NOT free to produce. It takes large amounts of finances and work to produce this paper, so we decided to offer a way for each and every one of YOU to support this paper as a way to, at least, be able to make a payment toward what you personally believe in, and perhaps can't get involved in, in other ways, to support freedoms. The paper has been produced since early February, and no one has received one thin dime for the full time work that has gone into this paper since. Will that stop us??? NO!!!! The issue isn't "making" money, it is freedom and educating us all on the threats we face. We will fight this battle till there's nothing left to fight for... PERIOD!

If you believe in this message... believe in this country... believe in standing together to warn... to encourage our fellow citizens... to make a stand in the only way you can, then this is your opportunity to make a decision. You can simply nod your head that "something needs to be done," or nod your head and stand up and donate to the Southwest Free Press.

Are we asking for thousands or hundreds? YES! However, if you can simply make a monthly donation of $50... $20... $10... $5...even $1... this would go to help the cause, and you would be making your payment for freedom in the best way you can, and THAT is honorable, even if it is $1! No one would castigate you for doing only what you can for supporting your Country and County!

Now, 6500 plus papers go out across the Southwest, and into half a dozen other states right now, with the potential to reach dozens more. Imagine sending a message to 20, 30 40 states? Imagine not being frustrated any longer about not knowing what to do with what you know is wrong. THIS is a way to "DO SOMETHING!" If you love your country... if you love your freedoms...if you are sick and tired of the idiocy taking place across this country by our so-called representatives... then SEND THEM A MESSAGE ACROSS THIS COUNTRY!

To donate to this war for Freedom, go to southwestfreepress.com/donate.html and pay through PayPal, or by credit card using the link provided, or mail in your donation to P.O. Box 2923, Pagosa Springs, CO 81147. Every little bit helps in this fight... PLEASE help us to get this information out to all those requesting this paper. It may not be able to continue because of those who thwart freedoms and truth. We've had a very few donations compared to the thousands of readers... so what does that say about the value of FREEDOM to most Americans?????

have usurped power from the states. To say that the people of the states can count on the three branches of the federal government to check each other in this regard and to maintain a Federal form of government is a joke. All three branches maintain that they possess the sole power (through the judiciary) to interpret and construe the Constitution, and that all others (i.e., the states) must submit thereto. This is in fact the very definition of nationalism, which the Constitution's ratifiers rejected.

As for the states' check against federal usurpations of power, most ignorant or disillusioned people would say that they lost that right when the Confederate States of America lost the Civil War in 1865, and from that point onward, the states could not check the federal government through arresting action. They suggest that to conquer equals the right to rule: a notion completely rejected in American jurisprudence. Time does not allow me to expand on this erroneous doctrine, so I will simply say, How ludicrous!

The fact is, the Federalist Paper writers expected the states to be the guardians against federal tyranny. This necessarily meant (as they expressed) that the states develop actual arms of resistance to such encroachments. This, of course, shows, once again, the FEDERAL character and nature of our form of government: the states were not subservient to the federal government's dictates, but were coequal in power to protect their own authority and freedoms through their State Constitutions.

Thankfully, we are seeing a current resurgence of State activism to be the voice and arm of the people to protect and perpetuate the US Constitution.

While the federal v. federal checks and balances have proven to be less than fruitful, the states today are taking their role more seriously in this regard, just as our founders and ratifiers demanded. It is this State power of active and passive nullification and resistance that will once again protect federalism and freedom in America. Therefore, it is this State power that affords us the best opportunity to defend liberty and restore constitutional government, and that we should expend most our energies to revive.

3. Constitutional Amendment. The US Constitution requires three-fourths of the STATES to amend the Constitution. Most certainly this is an effective tool to reverse and prevent evils in government. Our founders expected that this process would protect freedom and the principles of freedom. However, as we have seen since 1865, the amendment process has been used only to increase national power and decrease State power. From the states being denied power in the Senate, to the income tax and "privileges and immunities" clause of the fourteenth amendment, the nationalists of the twentieth century have had their heyday by deepening their squeeze of national ideals over federal. Ironically, the attack on federalism has come through the same document protecting our federation: the Constitution. (The illegality of amendments being used to propagate principles contrary to freedom and federalism is for another article and discussion.)

That being said: if there were enough states to amend the Constitution to clarify federal doctrines, limit federal government power, and reinstitute original State powers, then it most certainly would be beneficial. Praise the day when such amendments would be ratified.

4. Constitutional Convention. I have heard this method suggested by some in certain circles of the "patriot movement," and while I understand the suggestion of calling a constitutional convention to rewrite the Constitution, I believe that to do so would likely create more problems than what we are dealing with today. However, there is a caveat, as explained below.

To convene a constitutional convention, states would have to send delegates (just as in 1787) for the purpose of discussing and drafting a Constitution.

Not even getting into the legal issues and ramifications inherent in such a method, a very practical question is raised: Would a majority of the people convening at such a monumental event even possess the understanding, knowledge and belief needed to perpetuate and protect the principles of freedom and federalism? By virtue of what I see throughout the US today, I venture to say, No. I believe one of the greatest contributions to national ideals defeating federal ideals is that the people (including on State levels) do not understand, know or believe in the principles expressed by our founders and their forefathers.

From Obama, Page 8

castigated by Daniel Ortega—a Communist thug whose own daughter accused him of raping her.

* A narcissist who gave the Queen of England a present from the United States—an iPod containing recordings of his own speeches.

* A so-called Christian who officially declared “Pride Month” for a lifestyle that the Bible calls an abomination.

* A man who wanted Americans to ignore his Muslim name during his election campaign, yet boasts of his Muslim name when he travels to Muslim countries.

* A man who can name hundreds of America’s shortcomings, yet none of its great accomplishments.

* A President who claims the moral high ground by closing Gitmo yet supports the transfer of terror suspects to countries where horrific torture is certain.

* A President who scoffed at being called a socialist yet acted to nationalize the auto industry, the banking industry, and the insurance industry . . . and now seeks to nationalize the healthcare industry.

* A President who violates private property rights, the sanctity of contracts, and the rule of law—three essential principles that go back over a thousand years in the Common Law tradition.

* A man who promised 95% of all Americans a tax cut, but is increasing taxes on 100% of the population through inflation—the cruelest tax of all.

* A lawyer who represented ACORN—an organization now indicted in several states for voter fraud—whose stated goal is to get as many people on welfare as possible in order to destroy our financial system.

* A President who cheated GM’s bondholders by giving their property to the UAW in a political payoff.

* An American President who frequently criticizes his own country when speaking in foreign countries, but never praises America’s generosity, goodness or greatness.

* A President whose Secretary of the Treasury cheated on his taxes—as did several other appointees and advisors.

* A President who, despite the current federal debt of 100 trillion dollars, wants to add the greatest debt ever by nationalizing healthcare.

* A President who scoffs at being called a socialist, yet has appointed 28 “Czars” to circumvent constitutional government, including:

* A “Science Czar” who has advocated compulsory abortions for American women and the “surrender of sovereignty” to a “comprehensive Planetary Regime.”

* A self-professed communist as his “Green Jobs Czar”.

* A “Pay Czar” to regulate the pay of corporate executives.

* A President who swore an oath to “preserve, protect and defend the constitution from all enemies, foreign and domestic,” yet has nominated a domestic enemy of the Constitution to the Supreme Court.

* A President whose Homeland Security Chief classified pro-lifers, veterans, and supporters of traditional marriage as terrorists.

* A President who stood silent while the Iranian government hacked unarmed protestors to death with axes, because it was an internal matter, but freely offers his opinions about the internal affairs of Israel and Honduras.

* A President who decreed that true acts of terrorism must now be described as “man-made disasters.”

* A President who cracks hurtful jokes about Special Olympians.

* A President who refused to intercept or inspect a North Korean ship virtually certain to be carrying Weapons of Mass Destruction to Burma.

* A President who wants to cancel all missile defenses while rogue nations are developing long-range ballistic missiles.

* An American President who blames the violence in Mexico on America.

* A Commander in Chief who claims to have been unaware that Air Force One was taken on a terrifying, low-level photo-op over Manhattan.

* A President who berates American CEO’s for flying in private planes at private expense on company business, but whose wife spends hundreds of thousands tax payer dollars flying to Paris for a shopping spree.

* A President who promised a transparent administration, but requires all questions be screened before “impromptu” appearances.

* A man who freely admitted that his energy policies are designed to bankrupt the American coal industry.

* A President who has presided over the loss of 14.7 million jobs and whose “energy policy” will cause the loss of another 1 million jobs.

* A President whose “energy policy” will increase the average American’s utility bills by over $2,000 a year in the middle of the Great Recession.

* A man about whom liberal journalist Tom Brokaw said, “There’s a lot about him we don’t know.” . . . just one week before the election.

The vast majority of Americans do not know who he is, but someone surely does. Someone paid for his travel expenses to Pakistan and Indonesia. Someone engineered legal challenges to all of his election opponents for the State Senate and had them disqualified. Someone straightened and leveled his path to the U.S. Senate when a Democrat Judge made public the child custody records of his Republican opponent.

When he was a candidate for the U.S. Senate, someone arranged for him to speak at the 2004 Democratic National Convention. Someone saw to it that all of his records were sealed, both at home and abroad. Someone assembled the massive organization for his run for the Presidency. Someone knows all about him. Who?

Holiday For Athiests

In Florida, an atheist created a case against the upcoming Easter and Passover Holy days. He hired an attorney to bring a discrimination case against Christians and Jews and observances of their Holy days. The argument was that it was unfair that atheists had no such recognized days.

The case was brought before a judge. After listening to the passionate presentation by the lawyer, the judge banged his gavel declaring, "Case dismissed!"

The lawyer immediately stood objecting to the ruling saying, "Your honor, How can you possibly dismiss this case? The Christians have Christmas, Easter and others. The Jews have Passover, Yom Kippur and Hanukkah, yet my client and all other atheists have no such holidays."

The judge leaned forward in his chair saying, "But you do. Your client, counsel, is woefully ignorant."

The lawyer said, "Your Honor, we are unaware of any special observance or holiday for atheists."

The judge said, "The calendar says April 1st is April Fools Day. Psalm 14:1 states, 'The fool says in his heart, there is no God.' Thus, it is the opinion of this court, that if your client says there is no God, then he is a fool. Therefore, April 1st is his day. Court is adjourned."

(Oh that our courts could truly be so wise...)

thirty-seven members of Congress are millionaires. That's 44 percent of the body – compared to about 1 percent of Americans overall. Some lawmakers have profited from investments in companies that have received federal bailouts; dozens of lawmakers are invested in Wells Fargo, Citigroup, Goldman Sachs and Bank of America.

Among executive branch officials, CRP says the richest is Securities and Exchange Commission Chairwoman Mary L. Schapiro, with a net worth estimated at $26 million.

Secretary of State Hillary Clinton is next, worth an estimated $21 million. President Barack Obama is the sixth-wealthiest, worth about an estimated $4 million. Vice President Joe Biden has often tagged himself as an original blue collar man. The CRP backs him up, putting his net worth at just $27,000.

He's hardly the worst off.

Rep. Alcee Hastings (D-Fla.), freshman Rep. Harry Teague (D-N.M.), Rep. Jeff Fortenberry (R-Neb.), Rep. John Salazar (D-Colo.) and Rep. Sander Levin (D-Mich.) each a net worth of less than zero, CRP says.

Editor's Note:

With "struggling" members of Congress minding the national bank, we certainly have nothing to worry about. A simple vote for a pay raise for these poor public servants, and they can better take care of all American's.

I wonder what 500+ nooses with names attached of all those violating the Constitution and their Oath of Office hanging along Pennsylvania Ave in DC might do to wake Washington up?

From Federalism, Page 19

Thus, to call a constitutional convention would most certainly place us in a worse situation. That said, there is one positive that could result from this. If the Constitution were re-written, it would require the ratification of the states that wanted to join a new union under a new contract (Constitution). In this case, it very well may provide a way for the people of the states to decide which path they wanted to take: national or federal.

In other words, those states that yet wanted to live under Federalism and not Nationalism could reject the new compact and could declare themselves independent or seek to form yet another compact among like-minded states.

(Of course, this could happen anyway, per number 2 above--even without a constitutional convention--making any proposed Con Con a dangerous and unnecessary action.)

5. Revolution. Revolution simply means a change of power. For those who perceive such a term as being a bad thing, why do they not then demonize the current illegitimate system of national government, because this current system is not the one the states ratified back in 1787? If a squatter turns your property into his, are you not within your rights to remove him, his family, his friends and his belongings completely from your property?

It is a fact that Americans (nationalists, federalists and even monarchists) believed in the natural right of revolution--that every

Proposed 28th Amendment to the US Constitution!

"Congress shall make no law that applies to any citizen of the United States that does not apply equally to all US Senators and Representatives, and Congress shall make no law that applies to any US Senator or Representative that does not apply equally to all citizens of the United States. All existing laws and regulations that do not meet these criteria shall be declared null and void!"

I know... many of you are screaming that hanging is unfair... that a firing squad would be much better. We are in a war... and if someone betrays their country, t h e i r Constitution and their Oath of Office in a time of war, giving aid and comfort to the enemy... what is the penalty for that according to the law?

Look it up! Do we have anyone in the military willing to defend Americans? If the governing powers transgress the Constitution, violate citizen's rights and freedoms... where do the people turn if the military also abandon their country?

Obama: Approval of Shootings?

President (sic) Obama's complete disregard for the 13 dead Americans in his speech shortly after the shootings speaks volumes.

Rather than immediately address the murders by a Muslim, he wanders all over the page about minutia before lamely mentioning the event: Major Nidal Malik Hasan, a known Muslim, shot and killed 13 Americans... and Obama's grossly incompetent and almost (it appears) indulgence in the pleasure of the event... as a fellow Muslim... is not only despicable, but should be a major red flag on exactly whose side

How completely disconnected are we from reality when we add up all Obama's lies, his actions, his destructive agenda for America and Americans?

Another Excellent Choice of a Leader for America...

President Obama just nominated Islam Siddiqui, a top official from CropLife -- the pesticide industry's powerful trade group -- as America's chief agricultural negotiator for International trade. If confirmed by the Senate, Siddiqui, who has spent the last several years of his career fighting various restrictions and bans on environmentally hazardous pesticides, would bring that inappropriately aggressive stance on broadening pesticide use to the White House and influence trade negotiations with Europe and the developing world. (How wonderful).

generation has the God-given right to effect change by revolution when change cannot be reasonably expected and effected through other more peaceful means.

Coming full circle, then: To what degree has the federal government usurped its powers? This question is crucial because, as our forefathers expressed, resistance should be enacted proportionally to the usurpation. While there may be some who think that "it's not all that bad," I suggest that it is much worse than we think it is. We are at a point today when we are not only fighting for State sovereignty and a federal system, but we are fighting for national sovereignty (according to the LAWS OF NATIONS as expressed by enlightenment philosophers and jurists), against those who desire that the US become part of the global community.

The evidence around us is beyond reasonable doubt: we the people of the United States have been fraudulently denied our rights under the laws of Nature and Nature's God, and under the US Constitution. The rights to resist this tyranny already exist. The methods to choose federalism and freedom have their hands out, offering to help us. It is time we choose which method or methods will best reach the ultimate goal of freedom. And as I said, I believe a revival of State sovereignty--whereby states are resolved to exercise the authority they have per the terms of their charter (Constitution)--is the most attractive and effective method currently feasible to reclaim federalism and freedom in America.

Nonconsensual Taking of Your Money

It's time all you private hiring entities, states, political subdivisions, workers, independent contractors, sole proprietors, military personnel, or federal employees learn who is subject to withholding or who is subject to payroll deductions for taxes.

Private entities, states and political subdivisions are NOT REQUIRED to enter into federal payroll deduction agreements www.irs.gov/irm/part5/ch14s10.html

The filing of a withholding agreement (W-4 or W-9) is voluntary [26 CFR 31.3402(p)-1(b)].

The voluntary withholding agreement may be terminated at any time by the worker or the hiring entity [26 CFR 31.3402(p)-1(b)(2)].

Payroll deduction agreements for taxes apply only to CONSENTING employees of government agencies, federal employees and retirees, military personnel and Department of Defense employees who participate in the VOLUNTARY deduction program www.irs.gov/irm/part5/ch01s07.html

The term "employee" 31 CFR §215.2(h)(1)(i) does not include retired personnel, pensioners, annuitants, or similar beneficiaries of the Federal Government, who are NOT performing active civilian service or persons receiving remuneration for services on a contract-fee basis. They are not subject to withholding and have no duty to file any form W-4 or W-9, unless they desire to VOLUNTARILY enter into agreements.

Stop "giving away" up to 70% of your earnings. It's unlawful to terminate or not hire you for failure to provide an IRS Form W-4 or W-9; (see DOJ Form I-9; or 8 U.S.C. 1324a(b), 1324a(b)(2); or Privacy Act of 5 USC Annotated 552(a).)

No law requires you to disclose a social security number EEOC v. Information Systems Consulting CA3-92-0169-T IN THE

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION.

Stop nonconsensual withholding and deductions for income taxes, benefits, programs and social security trust. Companies are not required to report your earnings on IRS Form 941. Companies are not required to issue annual Form W-2 or Form 1099.

Appearance for an IRS administrative summons is voluntary. Answers to requests for information on an administrative summons (without a valid OMB number) are voluntary. Improve your quality of life.

Protect Your ASSETS from non-judicial liens, levies, judgments and garnishments. Learn the laws and court cases to protect your civil & federal rights regarding taxes. The Social Security Act does not require a person to have a (SSN) to live or work in the U.S., nor does it require an SSN simply for the purpose of having one.

How Companies/Employers benefit!

-Increase your bottom line by approximately 30%.

-Minimize income tax reporting requirements to almost nothing.

-Increase workers' take home pay up to 70% without affecting profits.

-Eliminate risk of lawsuits for unlawful conversion of property.

-Eliminate risk of lawsuits for Nonconsensual taking from pay.

-Eliminate risk of lawsuits for violating workers' civil liberties, God-given rights secured by the Constitution and Declaration of Human Rights.

Protect your obligation to uphold and defend the due process rights of your workers, independent contractors or sole proprietors against defective, unenforceable unlawful tax liens, levies, judgments and garnishments.

Don't be surprised to learn there is no memorialized law compelling hiring entities to withhold or deduct amounts from pay and transmit it to any government agency.

Numerous Supreme Court cases clearly uphold that workers labor cannot be taxed upon. Legally stop the nonconsensual taking from pay for withholding, payroll deductions for taxes and social security trust contributions forever.

No government tax agency pays you interest on the money they illegally confiscate from you. You simply cannot afford to allow them to continue withholding money which rightfully belongs to you. You should be in control of your money to invest it however you desire or improve your quality of life.

During the remainder of your working years, save thousands of amounts of unlawfully withheld and deducted money that is rightfully yours.

Material information can be located at <http://www.preferredservices.org/>, which also offers consultation services if you should want them. You can also obtain free info at giveliberty.org, and click on "Legally Stop Withholding." You can also download documents to read over to better understand this issue at the above sights, or at SWFP website... See Resource page, P. 22 for documents.

Editor's Note:

This is a rather simple, public and legal process to retain a good portion of your money should you not want them to withhold from your paycheck. Millions of people across the country are waking up to the truth that taxation is not legally being applied, and are separating themselves legally from the IRS' tyrannical theft of our money. It's your choice... research the issues, or continue paying your hard earned money to thieves.

Leadership, from Page 15

This "serpent," as he is, is involved with attempting to create a family... children, just as God is. He is extremely jealous of human destiny... to be in God's very family, this being is involved with various levels of gross deception over not only leaders, but all people, especially where he is ignored...

Rev 12: 9 "So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

He is also trying to form his own kingdom, his own "one world government and new world order" as a means to prevent God from establishing His kingdom on this Earth. This is better known as Babylon the Great, or the Beast Power (world ruling power having the power to control buying and selling, and life and death), as well as the false prophet, likely one of the "seed" of Satan, (Seed, and the past and future involvement with "UFO's" will be discussed next issue) will be tied directly into this Satanic power.

So, where does that leave us? In this Republic, the people are the true rulers, made so by God. That is you and me. We establish... elect... hire these leaders across America to work FOR us, not against us, but we have not only allowed corruption and lawlessness to flourish in this leadership, but a growing body of citizens seemingly are giving themselves over to these influences, and receiving certain "perks" for doing so.

Our Republic has been deceived into believing that which is bad, is actually good, and what is good, as being bad...

Isa 5:20 "Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! :21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, And prudent in their own sight!"

They are rejecting true knowledge and laws, and are accepting Satan as their father, and doing his will. They have become pawns in a global scenario... one that will have dire consequences for the world, as they are having dire consequences for our Republic and people. We are entering dangerous times...

2 Tim 3:1 "But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come :2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, :3 unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, :4 traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, :5 having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away... :7 always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth."

Our nation seemingly has elected corrupt leaders because corruption loves to be told they are right. A people who have righteousness and truth as their true goals will not stand for corrupt leaders, but we have them at every level of government... Federal, state and local... and we seem to tolerate it, if not like it. Does this bode well for our nation?

Deut 28:1 "Now it shall come to pass, if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments which I command you today, that the LORD your God will set you high above all nations of the earth. :2 And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, because you obey the voice of the LORD your God:"

Deut 28:3 "Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the country. :4 "Blessed shall be the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground and the increase of your herds, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks. :5 "Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl. :6 "Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out. :7 "The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways. :8 "The LORD will command the blessing on you in your storehouses and in all to which you set your hand, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

:9 "The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. :10 Then all peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you. :11 And the LORD will grant you plenty of goods, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground, in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. :12 The LORD will open to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. :13 And the LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be above only, and not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today, and are careful to observe them. :14 So you shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right or the left, to go after other gods to serve them. "

This Republic was certainly set high above every other nation this world has or has ever had, and the blessings we've enjoyed... the freedoms and protections we've experienced... are unmatched in world history, but it is obvious that we are falling from this "height.." Why?

Deut 28:15 "But it shall come to pass, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments and His statutes which I command you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you: :16 "Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the country. :17 "Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl. :18 "Cursed shall be the fruit of your body and the produce of your land, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks. :19 "Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

:20 "The LORD will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, because of the wickedness of your doings in which you have forsaken Me. :21 The LORD will make the plague cling to you until He has consumed you from the land which you are going to possess. :22 The LORD will strike you with consumption, with fever, with inflammation, with severe burning fever, with the sword, with scorching, and with mildew; they shall pursue you until you perish. :23 And your heavens which are over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you shall be iron. :24 The LORD will change the rain of your land to powder and dust; from the heaven it shall come down on you until you are destroyed."

We are personally responsible for our leadership troubles. We MUST hold them accountable to the law, the Constitution and to high standards and ethics. If we do this, and we collectively retake our nation and re-establish biblical standards of conduct, what can we expect from God?

2 Chron 7:14 "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

We have a choice in our actions, and in who we put in elected office. We have strength in free will and choice, and where we include God in the picture, we have His help, His promise, that the Republic will be restored... be regenerated... be re-established, but we have to act. Remember the prophecy Jonah gave to Nineveh?

Jonah 3:4 "And Jonah began to enter the city on the first day's walk. Then he cried out and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!"

What did Nineveh do? They turned from their evil and sought God...

Jonah 3:10 "Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it."

God changed His mind. Why? Because free willed people made the right choices. We must all stand together to hold leadership, and ourselves, accountable, or we will all be taken down and out... and THAT we can depend upon because God stated He would do just that.

Do we always have to learn the hard way? Do we enjoy corruption and greed? Do we enjoy destroying helpless future children of God? HE DOESN'T!!! We are fools to think God will be patient forever. We already see the signs... so will we seek truth and laws, or perish as a Republic? Use the responsibility God gave us as a free people...stand up and hold leaders accountable... stand together as one, or it's over!

Obama's Copenhagen Climate Treaty!

During a visit to Germany in the midst of the Presidential Campaign last year, Barack Hussein Obama declared, "I am a citizen of the world." In front of one million adoring Germans, Obama had announced to the world that he indeed prioritized globalism over patriotism.

The Copenhagen Treaty has two stated goals:

-Transfer wealth from Industrial Nations

(The United States) to Developing Countries.

-Dictate energy use and consumption to Industrial Nations (The United States).

Now, just so we are clear...

Goal Number One is Global Socialism.

Goal Number Two is a Global Dictatorship.

Lord Christopher Monckton, the former advisor for science policy to former British Prime Minister, Lady Margaret Thatcher, and former President Ronald Reagan, believes that if the U.S. signs any climate treaty coming out of the Copenhagen Climate Change Conference in December, it could subject the United States to a global dictatorship.

"This treaty of Copenhagen, which is going to be negotiated by the states' parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change in December, is going to...establish for the first time in human history a global government," he warns.
